WD 1858—GPB—16,926—23-7-21

D.O.No.279. The Palace, Mysore,

5th April 1922.

My Dear Sir,

His Highness the Maharaja proposes to leave Mysore for Simla on 24th April 1922 and to stay there for about a month. I am directed to inform you that during His Highness' absence at Simla all routine papers may kindly be disposed of by you, a statement of cases so disposed of being sent for His Highness information as was done in the past.

Important and urgent papers may however be submitted as usual to His Highness. Only the submission note would suffice in such cases. It is not necessary to send the whole file.

Yours sincerely,

Sd/- Mirza M. Ismail.
